

REBECCA STEWART

Facilitator

Rebecca is a Canadian Certified Counsellor working at a local private practice in Calgary, Alberta. She specializes in trauma and queer counselling with a passion for helping those who have experienced sexual violence. She began working in the field of sexual violence in 2017 as a volunteer for the Sexual Violence Support and Education Committee at the University of Lethbridge. Upon graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology in 2018, she immediately transitioned into working with individuals who have recently and/or historically experienced sexual violence. Rebecca continues to educate others through facilitation of First Responder to Sexual Assault and Abuse Training in affiliation with Association of Alberta Sexual Assault Services.
